D. COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATION

Home Occupations are subject to the conditions listed in Section 9.8(A) of the Green River City Zoning Ordinances. Please review the following conditions and initial on the line provided to verify understanding and compliance of your application.

General Conditions:

- _____ In addition to family members residing in the dwelling unit, only two (2) persons may be employed by an on-site home occupation. An off-site home occupation may employ no more than five (5) persons, in addition to family members residing in the dwelling unit. In addition to family members residing in the dwelling, more than five (5) employees for an off-site home occupation may be permitted with conditional use permit approval from the Planning and Zoning Commission.
- _____ The home occupation shall be clearly incidental and secondary to the use of the dwelling unit for dwelling purposes and not change the residential character thereof.
- _____ There shall be no exterior storage of materials incidental to the home occupation, on the site of the home occupation.
- _____ There shall be no change in the outside appearance of the building or premises, or other visible evidence of the conduct of the home occupation, including signs.
- _____ There shall be no offensive noise, vibration, smoke, dust, odors, heat or glare noticeable at or beyond the property line.
- _____ All outdoor activities associated with on-site home occupations, and all activities that produce noise, odor or light which is detectible beyond the residence, shall be limited to the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.
- _____ Equipment and motor vehicles:
- Mechanical equipment associated with the home occupation shall be stored or contained within the dwelling unit or an accessory building.
 - Motor vehicles, such as cars, trucks, and semi-tractors without the trailer unit, are permitted but may not be parked on the street or right-of-way.
 - Construction equipment under six thousand (6,000) pounds G.V.W. are permitted but must be stored within a garage or accessory building.
 - Equipment and vehicles not specifically mentioned in this section are prohibited.
- _____ The total area used for the Home Occupation shall not exceed twenty-five (25) percent of the gross floor area of the combined dwelling unit and attached garage.
- _____ Any parking incidental to a home occupation, whether for customers or employees, shall be provided on the site and must be improved. The street right-of-way may not be used for temporary parking by employees of an off-site home occupation. Home occupations that do not see customers at the residence need not provide additional on-site parking spaces.

STAFF USE ONLY:

_____ Under no circumstances shall any of the following activities be considered a home occupation: restaurant, veterinarian's clinic, barber shop or beauty parlor with more than one station, animal kennels, on-site welding, automotive engine repair or service, automotive body shop, health clinic, mortuary, or nursing home. Taxidermy is permitted only with a conditional use permit approved by the Planning and Zoning Commission.

_____ All home occupation permits shall expire on March 31st of each year and must be renewed annually.

_____ The use, storage, or disposal of materials that may affect the health, safety, welfare or character of the residential area must conform to standards set for those materials by the appropriate regulatory agency, and such materials may not be held in such quantities as to adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of the residential area.

Application and Enforcement:

_____ All persons conducting home occupations shall be required to apply for and receive a Home Occupation Permit prior to commencing any activities related to the home occupation.

_____ After receipt of a complete application and the required non-refundable filing fee, the Community Development Staff shall contact by letter all adjacent property owners of the proposed home occupation property.

_____ Adjacent property owners have fourteen (14) calendar days from the date of the letter to file with the Community Development Department a written objection to the home occupation. If a written objection is received, the application for the home occupation will be referred to the Planning and Zoning Commission for consideration. Community Development staff will advise you of the scheduled Planning and Zoning Commission meeting date & time. If no objection is received and the Community Development Department determines the home occupation permit should be granted, they shall then approve the application and issue a home occupation permit.

_____ The designated Community Development Staff may periodically inspect on-site and off-site home occupations to ensure compliance with the provisions of this Section. If the designated Community Development staff determines that the applicant has not complied with the requirements of this section, or if a signed written complaint about the home occupation is received, the home occupation permittee shall be brought before the Planning and Zoning Commission for further review.

_____ If the applicant cannot meet the requirements for home occupation, the Community Development Department shall deny the application. A denial may be appealed to the Planning and Zoning Commission.

_____ The Planning and Zoning Commission has the authority to continue, suspend, revoke or amend the home occupation permit at anytime.

_____ In the event the Community Development Department deems it necessary and appropriate, he/she may request and/or require additional information and place additional conditions in the Home Occupation Permit.

_____ If there are any changes in the conditions or operation of the home occupation described in the application, as approved by either community development or the Planning and Zoning Commission, the applicant shall submit a new application and obtain approval of said changes in accordance with the requirements of this section.
